3A CONTINUES TO GROW: ALDO TRENTINAGLIA BECOMES A PARTNER

The lawyer and real estate economist (IRE|BS) has been with 3A since 2016. He advises institutional investors, family offices and project developers. His focus is on real estate transactions and legal asset management.

Aldo Trentinaglia is a lecturer at the IRE|BS Real Estate Academy and co-founder of the Real Estate Forum of the Bucerius Law School, a platform for regular exchange with experts from the real estate industry.

3A is a consulting company with a new look. Dr Hermann Stapenhorst, MRICS, Dr Nadja Fleischmann, LL.M. and Stefan Meusel founded 3A in 2015 with market knowledge and expertise from many years of joint professional experience in a large law firm. Since then, 3A has accompanied real estate transactions with a volume of more than EUR 500 million, including the sale of Le Méridien in Frankfurt by Art-Invest, purchases of residential project developments by Corpus Sireo and sales of hotels by berlinovo.

3A provides legal advice to clients from all areas of the real estate industry throughout Germany and always keeps an eye on the strategic requirements of its clients. It is the consistent further development from a classical law firm to an industry-focused nationwide consulting firm. With sharp detail and many years of experience, 3A makes legal advice in real estate investment clear and comprehensible. 3A creates a new basis for the entrepreneurial success of its clients with innovative graphical representations of the work results and the use of its own software nice for due diligence reports.
